What is MFSA?

The Methodist Federation for Social Action (MFSA) was founded in 1907 by several Methodist Episcopal clergy and deaconesses to direct church attention to the enormous human suffering among the working class. Immediately the Federation became Methodism's unofficial rallying point for the Social Gospel, and in 1908 achieved the adoption of the first denominational social creed.

Today MFSA supports and augments peace and justice ministries at the local, conference, and national levels. As an independent organization, we call our church to expand its understanding of the radical call of the Gospel to be the inclusive, risk-taking Body of Christ.
