Reflection—Action—Witness within the United Methodist Church

MFSA mobilizes, leads and sustains a progressive United Methodist movement that energizes people to be agents of God's justice, peace and reconciliation.

MFSA envisions a healed, renewed and fully inclusive United Methodist Church, which embodies God's transforming love and grace in the world.

MFSA is grounded in God's all inclusive love and open to the Spirit's leading in the current age. Acting out of a deep spiritual yearning for justice and peace, we follow the radical teaching and example of Jesus.

MFSA offers a theologically grounded progressive vision and will organize to build avenues for progressive United Methodists to transform the church.

MFSA speaks from a progressive faith perspective to make a difference in public policy.

MFSA provides avenues for action for progressive United Methodists to bring about cultural and societal transformation.

Is your voice unheard? Are you being shouted down? Do you feel isolated because your understanding of faith doesn't match those who seem to shout the loudest? Is your faith calling you to act boldly, but you don't know where to start?

Connect with us. Transform your passionate actions to effective action.

Starting in late spring, progressive United Methodists are gathering in homes, cafes and online to talk about their beliefs—including what it means to be progressive.

Over the next two years ...

As United Methodists prepare for General Conference 2012, MFSA is working together to:

- Gather progressive United Methodists together for the Sing a New Song Conference, August 25-28, 2011
- Increase the use of social networking to build church-to-church and conference-to-conference networks
- Launch Connecting Voices: Conversations Among Progressive Christians
- Support action and witness activities of MFSA Chapters throughout the world
- Equip progressive United Methodists to respond to oppression and injustice
- Provide places for progressive Christians to put faith into action
